"The Outsourced General Counsel"

Our Approach

Phillips & Reiter is comprised of experienced business attorneys who provide top-quality legal services in most areas of business law to mid-market and emerging companies as well as tailored legal services to large corporations.

Our lawyers have served as in-house counsel for both public and private companies, from Fortune 500's to emerging start-ups, and have served at all levels of the nation's most prestigious law firms. We have represented clients in Silicon Valley, on Wall Street and, of course, from Main Street.

Phillips & Reiter was created from the client's perspective, maintaining the premium qualities and standards of traditional, large law firms while incorporating the responsiveness, flexibility, pragmatism and cost-effectiveness we developed as in-house lawyers.

Our backgrounds span the legal spectrum; however each of our attorneys has the same passion: effectively delivering the results business owners expect from their legal service provider.

We Add Value

Our lean structure, low overhead and years of experience allow Phillips & Reiter to provide legal services at a far greater value than traditional law firms, staff counsel or solo practitioners.
