PRACTICAL EXPERIENCE

Bill has more than 25 years' experience representing public and private companies in a wide variety of industries. Prior to joining Reiter, Brunel & Dunn, PLLC, Bill's career in private practice included tenures at several law firms of various sizes, including as a partner at the Austin office of Hughes & Luce, L.L.P (now K&L Gates). In addition to his private practice, Bill served as General Counsel for two publicly-traded companies, Medical Innovations, Inc., a home healthcare provider (NASDAQ: MIXX), and Digital Lifestyles Group, Inc., a designer, manufacturer and distributor of personal computers (OTC: DLFG). Prior to beginning his legal career, Bill worked as a Corporate Lending Officer for First City National Bank in Houston, after receiving his Masters of Business Administration.

During his career as General Counsel and in private practice, Bill has counseled clients on a variety of transactions, primarily focused on private placements and public offerings of equity and debt securities, mergers and acquisitions and compliance
